

Banned Cheers

Some cheers have been banned over the past few years due to the unsportsmanlike-like connotation they may impose.

These Cheers include:

Cookie Monster

The Cookie Monster says the Bears are the great big cookies at the top of the jar.
The Cookie Monster says the Tigers are the itty bitty crumbs at the bottom of the jar.

Cookies & Cream

Cookies, cookies, cookies and cream,
what's the matter with the other team?
Nothin', nothin', nothin' at all,
they just can't play football.

California Oranges

California oranges, Texas cactus,
we think your team needs a little practice.
Put 'em in a high chair, feed 'em with a spoon,
we can beat your team any afternoon.

Whoopsie

We're #1, Can't be #2, we're gonna knock the whoopsies out of you.

1,2,3,4

1,2,3,4, what do you think these cleats are for?
To stomp the Tigers, stomp stomp the Tigers!

HOWEVER: you could cheer like:

1,2,3,4

1,2,3,4, what do you think these cleats are for?
To score, hey hey hey! To SCORE

"We've got spirit" may only be directed to your parents. This chant may NOT be directed at the opposing cheer squad or the opposing stands.

Bang, Bang Choo Choo Train may be done only if "Bang, Bang" is changed to something else...i.e. "Hey, Hey", etc.
